Fine News You Can Use!

The library has gone fine free for most items! Daily fines are no longer collected on most overdue items, including OhioLINK and SearchOhio items. All items will still be billed and charged after 30 days past due, but patrons will no longer need to worry about daily fines for overdue items. The only exception is reserve items - patrons will still be charged regular overdue fines for reserve items.

This policy change is driven by a desire to remove barriers to the use of library items. Library materials are designed to be used and we believe this change helps to foster an environment that encourages the use of available information resources.

Fall 2019 Library Internship class

The library's popular internship program has been very successful at preparing Cedarville University students for future career opportunities. This fall, three students are enrolled in the 2019 Library Internship course (ENG 4230): Cory Brookins (Theatre), Kristen Farley (English), and Nicole Spencer (Linguistics). They will assist with services and complete projects designed to give them an overview of academic library operations. The interns will attend the Academic Library Association of Ohio annual conference in Columbus and will complete a variety of reading and writing assignments, as well as participating in discussions and giving presentations.

The 3-credit internship course is offered in cooperation with the Department of English, Literature & Modern Languages. Julie Deardorff, Associate Professor of Library Science, serves as the instructor.

New employees join the library staff

Nathanael Davis began work in July as the library's first STEM/Business Librarian. This position is tasked with engaging the School of Engineering & Computer Science, the School of Business Administration, and the Department of Science and Math to help meet the research and information needs of faculty and students in those programs. This includes delivering library instruction sessions, research services, and information literacy efforts, along with working to ensure that the library is well-equipped to serve those specific academic areas.

Nathanael is no stranger to Cedarville, having grown up in town. He graduated from Cedarville University with a B.A. in Biology and completed an M.S. in Environmental Science at Taylor University. Nathanael and his wife Kim, along with their three children, relocated to Cedarville from Bellingham, WA where Nathanael worked at Northwest Indian College.

Nathanael Davis

Marc Agee began work as the new Collection Services Technical Assistant on September 3, 2019. He replaced Lauren Cannon, who had served in that capacity since August 2018. A 2018 graduate of Cedarville University, Marc majored in Linguistics. He worked at the Centennial Library as a Circulation Services student assistant from May 2016 to May 2018. He also served on the Miracle Yearbook staff, including two years as editor-in-chief. Following graduation, Marc worked as a Circulation Clerk for the Greene County Public Library's Beaver Creek branch and as a reading tutor for Americorps.

Marc Agee

Marc's responsibilities include managing the acquisitions and processing workflow for books and media items, paying invoices, maintaining statistical records, communicating with faculty about new materials, and running financial reports. He also assists with staffing the MediaPlex Service Desk and serves on the library's Marketing Committee.

The Cartwheelers Ride...or Roll...Again

The Centennial Cartwheelers were once again a highlight of the 2019 Homecoming Parade as they made their highly anticipated return to the streets of Cedarville. The Cartwheelers, the Centennial Library's precision book cart drill team, made their debut at the 2005 Homecoming Parade and have appeared in nine parades since then. This year's team involved library faculty and staff and the three library student interns, with additional support from the Department of English, Literature, and Modern Languages and the Registrar's Office.

There's a library team from the 'Ville
 Who push their carts down and up hill.
 The people in town
 Love these carts of renown
 As they roll down the streets of the 'Ville.

Gabe Pyle, (Class of 2012)

Fourteen Animals That Are Definitely Not An Octopus.
Sanger, CA: Familius, 2018.

In this hilarious book of animals, artist Gabe Pyle presents fourteen beloved animals who are definitely not an octopus--or are they? Observant youngsters will love uncovering each octopus cleverly disguised in 14 animals' shapes. Based on the immensely popular Threadless t-shirt, 14 Animals (That Are Definitely Not An Octopus) is a fresh, witty romp through the animal kingdom that even adults will find hard to resist.
